 W. C. No. 359 M/18.
 Station Ootacamund, Dated the 29th November 1918.

From (Name) A. R. CUMMING, Esq., I.C.S.,
 (Designation) District Magistrate of the Nilgiris.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Home (Miscellaneous) Department.
 Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,
 I have the honour to forward for the orders of Government an application from Mr. Walter Ward, District Board Engineer of the Nilgiris and at present employed on military duty, for a passport to enable him to travel to England accompanied by his wife. The medical certificate enclosed will show that it is necessary for Mrs. Ward to proceed to England as soon as possible to undergo an operation and that in the opinion of the doctors who have granted it it is absolutely imperative that she should be accompanied by her husband.

2. I understand that Mr. Ward is taking separate steps to obtain leave from the military authorities and that he expects to revert to his permanent post of District Board Engineer of the Nilgiris.

3. Photographs in duplicate of Mr. and Mrs. Ward, one copy certified by me, are enclosed. The necessary fee of one rupee will be recovered before delivery of the passport.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A.R. Bannerman

District Magistrate.

Coonoor, 23rd November 1918.

3

We hereby certify that Mrs. Ward, wife of Lt. Colonel W. Ward of the Indian Defence Force, is in a precarious state of health due to muco-membranous colitis with renal and duodenal complications, which necessitate her proceeding to England as soon as possible for an operation requiring the highest surgical skill and that, in our opinion, it is absolutely imperative that she be accompanied by her husband.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

- (a) Natural-born British Subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad: such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.
