To The Chief Secretary to Government.
MADRAS.

SIR,

In view of the recent announcement that the restrictions on the travelling of women to Europe have been relaxed, I have the honor to request you to be so good as to grant me, as soon as possible, a passport to travel to London through the Mediterranean, in December of this year, or as soon ~~as~~ after December as a passage can be obtained. My reasons for desiring to travel to England now, are:-

(1) I have had word from home by the last English mail that my only remaining brother has been sent home very ill as the result of wounds received in France and elsewhere.

(2) I am now in my eleventh year of continuous service in Madras without furlough. I have the honor to be,
