Sir,

I have the honour to support the application of Miss Tweddle for a passport to enable her to proceed to England on furlough. She is a member of our Mission staff at Ikkadu, Trivellore, where she is in charge of our Girls' Schools. According to the rules of our Mission her furlough is overdue. During her term of service owing to the break-down in health of other missionaries she has on several occasions had to do extra ^{work}, with the result that she is now very tired and needs the change which furlough in England will give her. I therefore trust that you will grant her the passport requested.

Sir,

I have the honour to support the application of Miss Tucker, M.B., B.S. for a passport to enable her to travel to England via South Africa. Miss Tucker herself is in urgent need of furlough. She has had very heavy and responsible work in connection with the Wesleyan Mission Hospital at Ikkadu, Trivellore, of which she is now the senior doctor. According to our Mission rules she ought to have gone home on furlough two years ago, but war conditions made it impossible. She is thoroughly tired out and to avoid a break-down of her health needs to go home without delay. Her successor, Miss Dodge, M.B., Ch.B., started from England in October and is expected within a few weeks in Madras. At the same time Miss Tucker's sister in South Africa is suffering from a serious affection of her eyes and Miss Tucker wishes to take her home to England. For these reasons I trust that you will be good enough to grant her a passport

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th inst. in relation to the application of Miss Tucker, M.B., for a passport to enable her to travel to England via South Africa. Miss Tucker herself is in urgent need of medical attention. She has had very heavy and responsible work in connection with the Weston Mission Hospital at Ikshu, Travancore, of which she is now the senior doctor. According to our Weston rules she ought to have gone home on furlough two years ago, but war conditions made it impossible. She is thoroughly tired out and to avoid a break-down of her health needs to go home without delay. Her successor, Miss Dodge, M.B., D.P., started from England in October and is expected within a few weeks in Madras. At the same time Miss Tucker's return to South Africa is suffering from a serious affliction of her eyes and Miss Tucker wishes to take her home to England. For these reasons I trust that you will be good enough to grant her a passport.
