From (Name) H.T. Reilly Esq., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Collector of Trichinopoly,

To The Secretary to Government of Madras,

Public Department,

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following for early orders of Government.

According to Appendix XXVIII to Board's Standing Order No.177 the Vaikunta Ekadesi festival at Srirangam is to be declared as a public holiday by the Government by a notification under the Negotiable Instruments Act. This has probably not been done, as the festival is said to fall on Sunday the 12th January 1919 according to the Calendar or Panchankam supplied by Government. The festival however falls this year on 14th December 1918 as the Trustees of the Srirangam Temple are said to have arranged to hold the festival in advance for certain reasons.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Holiday for Vaikunta Ekadasi.
From the Coll. of Trichinopoly. No. 5178 of 7-12-18

Repr

The grant of a holiday under the Negligible Instruments Act for the Vaikunta Ekadasi festival is not subject to the condition that the day on which that festival is observed at the Srirangam Temple should be notified as a holiday. The Govt are usually advised in this matter by the Dy Director, Madras Observatory, and the Madras Chamber of Commerce, and it is probable that they take into account all considerations before they make the recommendations. In the statement of festivals during 1918 furnished by the Holidays Committee of 1914, a holiday was suggested for this feast. So also the Dy Director, Madras Observatory and the Madras Chamber of Commerce made no recommendations last year when sending the list of holidays for 1918. The fixing of the 14th Dec. 1918.

It is understood that the festival is observed at the Triplicane temple only on the 12th of Jan 1919. There is thus no uniform procedure adopted in the observance of this festival. The Govt took the best advice that was available to them. ~~and the Govt~~ ~~for the Govt~~ we cannot now declare any fresh holiday. We may feel the Comr. accordingly. Draft for approval.

The Commr. of Trichinopoly is informed that the ~~significance~~ of a general holiday for the ~~Vaikunda Ekadasi~~ does not depend on what day the festival is observed at the ~~Srirangam Temple~~. The Govt. were advised that the festival in question did not occur during 1918, and no holiday was therefore notified. ~~The Govt. have, however,~~ no objection to the 14th Decr. 1918 being observed as a general holiday in the Trichinopoly District in substitution of the previous

Read the following:
From the Collector of Trichinopoly. R.C.No.5178/R of 1918 dated the 7th December 1918.

I have the honour to submit the following for early orders of Government.
According to Appendix XVIII to Board's Standing Order No.177 the Vaikunta Ekadasi festival at Srirangam is to be declared as a public holiday by the Government by a notification under the Negotiable Instruments Act. This has probably not been done, as the festival is said to fall on Sunday the 12th January 1919 according to the Calendar or Panchankam supplied by Government. ORDER.

The Collector of Trichinopoly is informed that the Government cannot now declare any new holiday in the current year for Vaikunta Ekadasi. They have no objection to the 14th December 1918, being observed as a general holiday in the Trichinopoly district provided the penultimate Saturday of the month is notified as a working day for the public offices in that district.
