To The Local Government

I, Ernest Barnes herewith submit my application for a Passport to travel to England in April 1919.

It is necessary for me to go on business as Proprietor of the Firm trading under the name of Ernest Barnes in Mount Road. Before the War I went home once in two years to buy stock and tools. I have not been home since 1914, business has increased considerably and I am very much handicapped for want of tools and stock, I therefore beg that a Passport may be granted.
