Calicut.

Dear Sir,

In forwarding herewith my application for a passport for London for myself, my wife and son aged 2 years, I have the honour to inform you that I have not been out of India since September 1911 when I returned from short leave to England. During the 7½ years since my return to duty, I have

have been for 4 years doing double duty in charge of Calicut, and Tellicherry Ports. My wife returned to India in 1914.

Both my own health and my wife's have suffered from this prolonged stay in the Indian climate and we are anxious to get home as soon as possible to recruit. I may mention that the Presidency Port Officer has informed me that I can be spared, every other Officer of the Marine Department having had leave out of India since my last return to duty.

I have the honour to be,

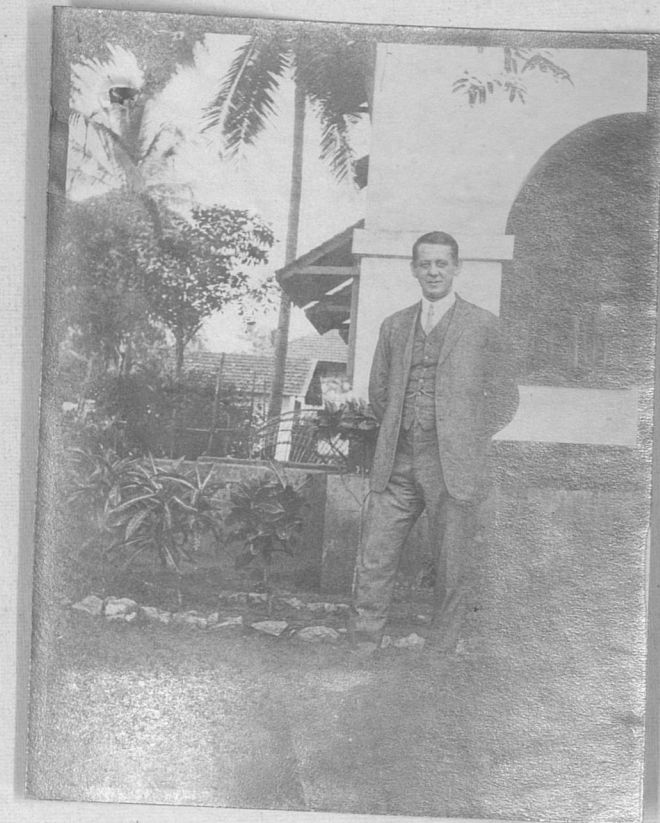

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. N. R.

I hereby certify that I have examined A. W. Godfrey, Esq.
Madras Port Dept. with regard to his present state of health.
He suffers from sleeplessness neuritis in the left arm and general neur~~ma~~thenia. He has been out in India for 7½ years without a furlough. His wife & child whom I have been attending professionally need a complete change to recruit their health. Under these circumstances I consider a furlough to England absolutely necessary.
