This is to certify that Mrs. Mackay is not in a good state of health. She has undergone severe operations and in my opinion she ought to proceed to England or France without any delay. Every effort should be made to permit Mrs.Mackay to leave India as soon as possible as I consider if she stays in this country her health will be so seriously damaged that there will be little chance of recovery.

Dear Mr. Swamikannu Pillai,

I should be much obliged if you would let me know, with reference to our conversation yesterday,

(1) whether, if I am granted leave, that fact in itself will be sufficient to enable me to get a passport?;

(2) what evidence will be accepted as urgent reasons in the case of Mrs. Mackay — Is a medical certificate necessary?

(3) whether there will be any special difficulty in her

My dear Mackay,

I write in reply to your note to Mr Sevamikanam Pillai asking about your & Mrs M's ppts. As to your enquiries,

(1). If you are granted leave, that fact, in itself, is sufficient for grant of a ppt. You wd. have to produce a certificate of military leave (or exemption) & a formal ref. by Govt. to the G.O.C. Dist. wd. be necessary.

(2). At present Govt. are not insisting on the production of medical certificates by ladies: but there are no instructions to that effect from the C.G.S. & I personally think that where a med. certif. can be got, it will do no harm at all to put it in.

(3). There is ~~no~~ now no absolute bar on ladies travelling by the Mediterranean but so far as I can make out the C.G.S. intend these cases to be governed by the rules still in force as to men's applns, according to which some urgency has to be shown for sanction of the Mediterranean route. The orders on this point are, like the rest, hopelessly out of date but are still technically in force: I don't think, however, that Govt. ~~wd.~~ are likely to insist strictly upon them. There will be no objection to your travelling together by the Mediterranean or any other route provided you can get berths on the same boat, but if the Port Commander books for women & children ~~only~~ yourself, you would probably not be allowed to travel by these. As to this last, however, we are still quite in the dark — save that we have been told that the allotment of passages will in some way be regulated.

Yours sincerely
