The Honble Mr Couchman having been ~~disputed~~ to be a member of the Reforms Committee, to his office as President Board of Examiners a Substitute will have to be appointed unless Mr Couchman can ~~discharge~~ discharge his duties as a member of the Committee without prejudice to his office as President Board of Examiners. Intimation has, so far, not been received either from the Public Dept or from Mr Couchman whether a Substitute should be appointed.

It is usual to appoint the Senior Land Revenue member to the office. But there is no rule. On a former occasion when Sir Robert Clegg vacated the office he ~~did not recommend the~~ nomination of Mr Azizuddin. The next ext being in January, for orders

- (1) whether a substitute should be appointed and if so,
- (2) The person who should be nominated.

the Public Dept may be consulted.

With reference to the portion marked 2 in House (Mis) Dept's note at page 1 ante, it is submitted that it is not for the Public Dept. to move in the matter. It seems primarily for the outgoing President of the Board of Examiners ^{or for his secretary} to move for the appointment of a substitute.

If Apparently it may not be possible for the Honble Mr. Couchman to continue to perform the duties of Presid Board of Examiners, while he is on deputation as member of the Committee on Division of Functions. It may, it is submitted, be left to the House (Mis) to select a substitute they may consider suitable.
