Collyer Road

Madras
4th Dec. 1918

I hereby certify that the Rev. George Pittendrigh has been under my treatment during the past year. I consider the state of his health to be such as to render long leave to England absolutely necessary for his recovery, and that it would be decidedly risky for him to remain in India during the next hot weather. I consider that he should not remain in this country later than the month of March 1919.
