To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras

Home Department

Sir,

I have the honour to support the application for a passport on behalf of Joyce Findlay, the daughter of the Rev G.H. Findlay, of Madurantakam. The passport was presented to the District Magistrate of Chingleput yesterday and was to have been sent to you without delay. This girl is six years of age and has for the last three years been in very indifferent health. She has had to undergo three courses of injections at the King Institute for boils, from which she has suffered greatly. Her parents are anxious to send her home to England and Miss McLeod, who has obtained a passport, has undertaken to take her to England with her. I therefore request that a passport may be issued for her to Rev G.H. Findlay, Wesleyan Mission, Madurantakam without delay, as Miss McLeod is anxious to sail by a boat due to leave Colombo this month.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant

C. H. Monahan

From the Rev. G.H. Findlay, M.A.,
Wesleyan Mission, Madurantakam.

To the Secretary for Government,
Home Department,
Fort St George.

Sir,

I have the honour to draw your kindest attention to an application for passport for my daughter, Joyce, a girl of six years old. This application was forwarded by the Collector of Chingleput on Saturday last, the 7th instant: and the Rev. C. H. Monahan, M.A., Chairman and General Superintendent of the Wesleyan Mission, Madras, wrote at the same time to you strongly endorsing the application. It is very urgent that, if possible, the passport may be granted because of the circumstances of the case. It is of course impossible that the little girl should travel alone: and it is very important to us that she should be able to travel in the charge of friends who will take care of her. Pass-ports have already been granted to two ladies, Miss R. McLeod, and Miss M. L. Lockhart, both of whom have promised to take the child with them if it is possible to secure a berth for her on the boat by which they travel; and if also her passport has been issued in time. Since passports have already been granted to these two ladies, I have the honour to request that one may be immediately granted to her. We shall of course see that she travels in someone's care: there can be therefore no hesitation in issuing her a passport on that score.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Findlay

From the Rev. G. H. Findlay, M.A.,
Wesleyan Mission, Madurantakam.

To the Secretary to Government,
Home Department,
Fort St George.

Sir,

I have the honour to send herewith for your kind attention and favourable disposal an application for passport in Form B made by me on behalf of my daughter Margaret Joyce Findlay, aged six. I have also the honour to draw your kind attention in this connexion to my letter dated 13th December 1918, which will indicate the circumstances under which the application is made. This application in Form B is in substitution for the application wrongly made on form prescribed for adults. In that letter I stated that the child is to travel in the care of a lady who has already obtained a passport. As this lady may be able to secure a berth at any time, it is very urgent that a passport may be granted to this child to travel with her.

2. I have also the honour to enclose copy of a medical certificate showing the necessity of the child's travelling to England.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Findlay

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to :—

- (a) Natural-born British subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant (in the case of a child under 15 requiring a separate Passport, by the child's parent or guardian) in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad : such persons should apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

Wesleyan Mission,
Ritherdon Road,
Vepery, Madras. 6

Dec. 10, 1918.

I hereby certify that Margaret Joyce Findlay aged six years needs to go as soon as possible to England. She constantly suffers from boils which recur in spite of treatment and needs to live in a temperate climate.
