PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to :—

- (a) Natural-born British Subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad : such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

Note.

As it is uncertain that Mrs Chetham who has also applied for a Passport, will be able to obtain leave to travel in the same steamer with Mrs Chetham, this ~~passport~~ application has been made out simply by Mrs Chetham.

(Copy of letter No. Nil, dated 17th December 1918 from Mrs. D.K. Chetham, to the Collector, Kistna.)

With reference to your R.C.No.10811-13-6, dated the 14th instant I write to say that I desire to make my journey to England from cogent private necessity. It is necessary to urgently make fresh arrangements for my four children in England. Owing to the war expenses have nearly doubled and we cannot afford to continue as we have done so long which practically means living beyond our income. I have also one child in India who cannot stand the heat and to remain in India will mean 6 months in 1919 in the hills and the expenses of keeping up those establishments. All my children suffered from the climate in India and had to be taken Home very early in their infancy and I am now - anxious as to the youngest child (now 2 years old) whose health has already given me much trouble.

My husband has given full reasons regarding the journey Home, both for myself and for himself in his application for allotment of passages, with additional reasons for himself, viz, that he has to settle up affairs of his father, who died last month and to settle his mother in England. The above reasons may be kindly considered also in reference to his application made a few days later.

Dm. No 3723-1 of 11.12.18 to the Dm. Kistna
p302 [4324] from the Dm. Kistna Re. 1084 of 21.12.18

The D.M. forwards copy of a letter from Mrs. Chetham explaining the necessity for the journey. She says it is necessary to make fresh arrangements for her four children in England, that her youngest child who is in India cannot stand the heat of the climate & that she should therefore have to be in the hills for 6 months in case she were to stay on - all which would make rather too great an incursion on her purse. Submitted a pp. may be granted.
