G.O. No. 643, Home (Miscellaneous), dated 6th September 1918.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to all officers concerned memorandum of the Government of India, Foreign and Political Department, No. 1267-G., dated the 12th August 1918, regarding the necessity for endorsements and visas on passports of British and foreign subjects respectively leaving India.

II

Memorandum from the Joint Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign and Political Department, No. 1673-G., dated Simla, the 21st June 1919.

My memorandum No. 1267-G., dated 12th August 1918.

2. The Government of India are anxious to reduce as far as possible the existing volume of correspondence with local Governments regarding the grant of visas on the passports of foreigners leaving India.

3. It has therefore been decided that visas may in future be granted by local Governments, without prior reference to the Government of India, on the passports—

- (i) of all allied or neutral foreigners of undoubted harmlessness or respectability, for all destinations;
- (ii) of all allied and neutral foreigners proceeding from India to their own countries.

4. Similarly as regards foreigners who are British subjects by naturalization or marriage, Indian passports may, without prior reference, be granted to persons who, though of foreign extraction, are above all suspicion of hostile sympathies. A reference to the Government of India in the Foreign and Political Department should however be made in the case of all persons of German or Austrian origin proceeding to any destination and in the case of de jure Turkish subjects proceeding to the United Kingdom or any part of the British Empire.

5. All cases in which the Local Government entertain any doubt as to the desirability of a proposed journey or are not in possession of sufficient information regarding the applicant's bona fides should continue to be submitted for the orders of the Government of India in the Foreign and Political Department. The special restrictions existing with reference to entry into Egypt and Mesopotamia, the entry of Russians into Australia and of all foreigners into the Union of South Africa remain in force and should be carefully observed.

6. All visas granted to foreigners should continue to be reported as hitherto but such reports should be made in future by post and addressed to the Government of India in the Home Department.
