Deaths and Marriages.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME (MISCELLANEOUS) Department.

Sir,

With reference to Memorandum No. 712 C-1,

Home (Judicial), of the 12th instant inquiring whether there is any manual the printing of which it is desirable to take up now, I have the honour to state that the desirability of issuing a manual collating the various laws regulating the registration of births, deaths and marriages the principal of which are named in the margin and with which I, as Registrar-General, am concerned has engaged my attention

tion for some time past. The notifications and orders under these Acts are at present scattered, and D'Cruz's "Marriage

Registrars" Manual" [G.O.

497, Public, 16th March 1916]

deals only with some of these Acts and is not complete for purposes of reference.

1. The Parsee Marriage and Divorce Act, 1865.
2. The Special Marriage Act, 1872.
3. The Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872.
4. The Births, Deaths and Marriage Registration Act, 1886.
5. The Malabar Marriage Act, 1896.
6. The Madras Registrar of Births, and Deaths Act, 1899.

B

The Manual "The Madras Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Manual", for the printing of which I request sanction now and the manuscripts* of which I herewith submit for perusal, will contain in a handy form all the legislative enactments relating to the registration of births, deaths and marriages together with the rules, notifications and orders issued by the Government of India and the local Government and will be of use to the Registrar-General, the Registrars of births, deaths and marriages and licensed ministers.

* End. I

The other Provinces have such manuals of their own and I submit the Punjab Manual for perusal and return.

 End. II

Remain

If the Government sanction the printing of this work, about 2,000 copies may be printed, about 1,200 for supply free to Registrars of births, ~~xxx~~ deaths and marriages who are Government servants and the remaining 800 for sale and supply to others.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Memorandum No. 712 C-1 Home (Judicial) Department dated, Fort St. George, the 12th March 1919, to the Inspector-General of Registration, Madras.

3

As the slack season in the Government Press, Madras, is now approaching, it will be desirable to keep the work in the Press as constant as possible by keeping a reserve stock of work of a not very urgent character which can be taken up whenever there is a decline in the work of the more urgent classes. The Inspectors-General of Prisons and Registration, the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies and the Chief Inspector of Factories are requested to state at an early date, whether there are any manuals or other publications, the printing or re-printing of which has been postponed owing to the war and which it is desirable now to have taken up. If there is any of the kind, the Superintendent, Government Press, will be glad to have the manuscripts forwarded to him as early as possible so that he may be able to proceed with them when and as the other demands on the press allow. In cases where the sanction of Government for the printing or reprinting is required, it should be applied for as early as possible before sending the manuscripts to the Press.

Dear Sir,

I am directed to refer to U.O. 3385-1
Home (Mis.) of the 10th instant and to request that you will be so good as to return the manuscript of the Births Deaths and Marriages Manual
since it has to be sent to the Superintendent Government Press for ascertaining from him the approximate cost of printing the proposed Manual.

yours truly,

Flay R.

Please see para 3 of the U.S. Note of the Financial Department of the 26th March 1919. wherein the Departments of the Secretariat were asked to ascertain whether there were any manuals or other publications the printing of which had been delayed owing to the war & if so to have the manuscripts sent ^{to} the S. G. P. This reference was, however, lodged in this Dept. But the Jnl Dept seem to have referred the matter to Mr. Schmidt in his capacity as the Registrar Genl of Registration & Reg. of J. S. Cos. In reply to that he has sent this letter as the Reg. Genl of B, D & M asking for the printing of the "Births, Deaths & Marriages Registration Manual." The reason urged by him for the printing of the Manual are clearly set out in paras 1 & 2 of his letter at pp 102 & 103.

2. The Marriage Registrar's Manual (printed in 1916) contains only 3 of the 6 acts which are now proposed to be printed in the "Madras Births, Deaths & Marriages Registration Manual" and as such it is ^{not} in the Registrar's General's opinion, complete for purposes of reference. He has not, however, stated whether the need for such a book as the proposed Manual has been greatly felt in the past or whether any real difficulty has been experienced by anyone owing to its absence.

3. The Registrar Genl. has sent for perusal the Punjab Manual and states that other provinces also have such manuals of their own. 4. For a view whether, in these circumstances, the proposal may be favourably considered

The U.O. note [Home (Miscellaneous), dated 7th March 1919] is not as complete as the reference [No.712 C-1 Home (Judicial) dated 12th March 1919 - copy attached as page 3 c.f.] which I received. The latter ~~went~~ ^{went} further than the Financial U.O. note of the 6th March since it included cases where the sanction of the Government for the printing is required.

2. The approximate cost of printing and binding 2000 copies of the Manual including the cost of paper has been ascertained to be Rs.1,550.

3. The Manual comprises various minor Acts, the notifications and orders under which are at present scattered and not available for easy reference. The ~~very~~ idea of compiling the manual originated with the difficulty experienced in tracing the notifications whenever ~~required~~ required for reference and there was, until I printed the standing orders [G.O. 1370 Pub. 19th July 1916], absolutely no guide even to my establishment to indicate the outlines of the work they have to perform.

4. The proposed Manual will be of great help not only to myself and my establishment but also to the Registrars of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

The Registrar General reports that the cost of printing & binding 2000 copies of the Manual will be Rs. 550/-.

2. As to regard the difficulty, if any, experienced in the past for want of ~~such~~ a Manual such as the one now proposed to be printed please see para 3 of the Regr General's ltr. dt. 10.6.19.

3. The Registrar General says that the Manual will be of great help not only to him self & his establishment, but also to the Registrar of Births, Deaths & Marriages.

For orders whether, in these circumstances, the printing of the Manual may be sanctioned.
