Dear Helton

I've decided to go home for a year at the beginning of November, & Govt are agreeable. Can you fix me up a pass-port? My reasons are of course urgent family affairs, as I have to fix up the future of the kiddies, both educational & financial. If this letter will do, all right. If not, you might let me have a form of application.
My address is as above till 9th July, when I return to Chittoor.

Yours sincerely
J. Indler

Have just on your of 28th. As to ppt, I'm afraid the filling up of a form is unavoidable as we have to embody certain details in the ppt itself. I enclose a form; you can send it direct to me with duplicate photos of yourself.

You will see that the Declaration in the form has to be verified by a letter: so do one of the duplicate photos. If it's inconvenient to get a letter to do this,

I can do it when you send the things in. There's a fee of one rupee.

I am for registering you for a passport priority certificate:

you may as well have one as it will enable you to get a move on with the shipping agents at once.
