S. Kanara, Collector's Office,
Mangalore 191-
18 July 19.

Dear Sir,

I am sending you Mr H. Stokes' Medical certificate required for the issue of passport.

Since his original application for passport he has been in negotiation with Captain J. Dave, representing the Commissioner Trust regarding his remaining with the Trust after they take over the Midway Industrials.

I thought it necessary to get the facts as rec'd clearly before sending on the Medical certificate.

I enclose his reply in which he states that the understanding is that he remains here for 6 months, and that he will get a holiday to England shortly.
I understand that the probability of the Trust wanting to get Mr Stokes' services personally are favourable & they are likely to offer him adequate terms.
Consequently there is no probability of the Trust being left in the lunch if the passport is granted; Mr Stokes may be trusted to see the French work started before his goes on leave, & the French may be relied upon to offer him adequate terms somewhat more generous than outlined in his letter, especially in the matter of passage home & out again, at any rate.

I recommend grant of the passport.

Yours sincerely

J. H. Lawrence

Dear Lancashire,

On the way to Malpe I did tell Captain Dore that it was 8 years since my last furlough & that I was very anxious to see my children again, the two eldest will soon be leaving school and something has to be arranged for them. Besides this the strain of the last 5 years had told on my health. Before he left Mangalore he asked me if I would stay on for 6 months, to which I agreed.

Since then he has written to my (in answer to a letter of mine) that he would recommend the Commonwealth Trust to reimburse me on my return, pay me half salary while away and my passage one way.

Beyond this no details have been settled and I have signed nothing. My staying longer

The 6 months deposit very much in excess of the first month's worth may be a bit out of the ordinary way but among the franchise men including myself who have been doing little work under franchise difficulty - sometimes may be the last - 5 years left now to to pay the franchise in the future of the franchise company and the franchise company is not given in either a franchise or franchise but franchise is quite plain to see that his company under not receiving any claims like this so he has no right contact with the M.H.G. We have the franchise government - not but that - when it comes

Certified that this is the photograph of Mr. H. Stokes applicant for passport for England, via Italy Switzerland & France.

This is to certify that Mr. H. Stokes has been under my medical observation for the last 4 or 5 years. He has consulted me for an obstinate form of neuralgic head-ache to which he is subject, and for weak eyes and sleeplessness. He is considerably run down in his general health and I consider that a change to England is essential in the interest of his health.
