Para 20 of the memorandum from the Govt of India No 123-4 of the 14th January 1919 lays down that in the case of applications for passports to Siam previous reference to H. B. M's Minister at Bangkok should always be made in cases of a doubtful or suspicious nature. In the present case the Hon. Rammad recommends the grant of a passport "as the evidence adduced shows that there is necessity for the journey". A passport may, therefore, issue.
