Sir.
"The Hindu Message" is a weekly Review appearing every Thursday. It was started in October 1917 and discusses every week all subjects of current interest. The Policy of the journal is well indicated in the Margin. Now that it has fairly well established itself, I request you to be kind enough to include it among the journals and newspapers for which the privileges of the Editor's Table are accorded. With such privileges this journal would be able to discuss current subjects with fuller knowledge and greater accuracy. Trusting to be accorded the privileges of the Editor's Table,

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

(Designation) Dist. Magistrate, Trichinopoly.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Home (Miscellaneous) Department.

Ootacamund.

Sir,

With reference to the Government Endorsement No.
4738-1, dated 16th June 1919, I have the honour to report as follows:--

1. The paper is a weekly one and its circulation is about 500.
2. Its tone is generally harmless but occasionally objectionable, and my predecessor Mr. Reilly had to warn the editor for the tone of one or two articles. It is given to harping on the "foreign" nature of the Government of the country and

Home (Mis) Dept.

and to occasional references to the "misrule" of ~~the~~
"the Bureaucrats"

3. The Editors are two--

(1) Mr. K. Sundarama Ayyar, M.A., of Kumbakonam, a retired professor of the Kumbakonam College.

(2) Mr. Balasubrahmanya Ayyar of Srirangam.

I know nothing of the former. The latter is a respectable enough man and is chiefly interested in the publication of sanskrit works.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Dt. Magistrate.

9. 2.
The remark of the E.D. in regard to the Hindu Message in their report
on newspapers for 1918 is extracted below:—

"The journal stands for
"(1) the maintenance of British
"supremacy with self-gover-
"for India, (2) cooperation
"with the different communities
"without prejudice to Hindu
"Dharma; influence small;
"less occasionally objec-
"tionable."

The circulation of this paper is 300.

2. In Sept. last an objectionable article was noticed in the issue of the 29th Aug 1918. & the D.M.

Trichinopoly, was asked to keep a watch on the paper & bring to the notice of Govt.

articles of objectionable character appearing in the paper.

In his report on the working of the Press act during 1918

the D.M. reported that the publisher was warned personally.

— vide p. 16 of G.O. 255 Pub. b. 5.19.

3. Recently an objectionable contribution was noticed of the

P.D.O.

G.O. 816 A Pub
7.9.18

H. M.'s direction was to await further issues for further objectionable contributions if any. The issues of the paper are now being regularly watched & so far no objectionable contribution has been noticed.

(The file with the latest issue has been circulated to H. M. - J. J. S.)
Since read back & linked herewith.
(Since unlinked)

Subd. for orders whether Pub. may recommend the grant of G.T. Privileges to the paper.

When are E.T. privileges to be put set out? How far does the offer of Mr. Gwynne the recent National effect E.T. arrangements (what does this mean)?
15.7.19
17.7.19
1919

It is submitted that Go. 362 Home (Misc) of 6.4.1917 lays down certain rules for the selection of papers in the secretariat for communication to the Press. Papers so selected are communicated for the information of editors etc. who have been admitted to G.T. privileges. The list of such editors is annually revised.

The list for 1918 is in G.O. 575 Home
W (Misc) of 26.7.18. The list for 1919 is now under revision.

2. As regards the effect on the existing G.T. arrangements of the recent constitution of the Publicity Board, it is subd that,
while the papers selected under G.T. arrangements will be communicated only to editors etc.
who are already on the G.T.
list, Communications of the Publicity Board will be not only for the press, but also for the wider public - please see paras 6 & 8 of G.O.

R 32b Rev. (Spl) of 17.7.19. Attention is however solicited to para 10 of that G.O. where it is said that the best lines of development of the Board
can only be worked out by experience. Until this experience is gained it seems impossible to say how how the present G.T. arrangements will be affected.

I see no objection to
any newspaper being

The question of the relations between the Congress Board &
the E.T. is still in the air.
Meanwhile, I submit, the existing rules as to E.T. privileges are in force & under these
it is wd. not run a suitable candidate.

I suggest we may either
refuse or may let the case
h.o. the relations between the E.T. & the Publicity Bureau
are defined.

An E.T. privilege means that the Press
supplies papers direct to the newspaper, all papers marked for E.T. This is needless waste of stationery if every paper, rap or not, is put on the E.T. list.

Regarding the connection of the Publishing Board with the Press, the matter is yet under consideration.

The paper is weekly & the circulation small. The request may be referred.
