R. O. B. No. 118

8. 8. 19

Note for the Secretary, Home Department.

In my proposals for the publicity Bureau establishment submitted to the Chief Secretary, I have requested Government to sanction 2 shorthand typists and 2 typist clerks for the Bureau. For these 4 clerks, 4 typewriting machines will be required. Only one typewriting machine has yet been supplied to this office and office work is considerably handicapped for want of machines. 3 clerks are now working with one machine. I therefore request that ~~immediate~~ early orders may be issued to the Superintendent of Stationery to supply 2 Remington No. 10 typewriting machines (one with carriage "C") and 1 Underwood latest model typewriting machine for the use of the Bureau.

The proposals for the Publicity Bureau Establishment are now with H.M. (Publicity) in Madras for discussion with Mr. Gwynn. It has been proposed therein to sanction another machine for the office. The officer says he is in an urgent need of typewriting machines, perhaps one additional machine may now be immediately sanctioned - the question of a further supply being considered when orders are passed as regards the Establishment.

 A draft order sanctioning the supply of a Remington No 10. is subd. for approval.
 The case need not go to Financial
 (D) for a precedent vide G.O. No. 1167 Eon 9 11. Sep 1917.

The proposal for the purchase of additional machines is being considered by the Government.
 It has been proposed to purchase
 10 machines of the type which is now in use.
 The cost of these machines
 is estimated at Rs. 10,000.
 The Government is considering the proposal and will decide whether to purchase
 the machines or not.
