My dear Campbell,

There is a most extraordinary misprint or mistake in the report of the Publicity Conference, and as your name is attached to the G.O. I am writing to you.

In my first speech I made ^{an} ~~am~~ made to refer to "Mr. Passmore & Mr. Zumbro" as having given much help. I never mentioned them, & they were not on the publicity board. The name I mentioned was that of Monsignor Kuss. I don't think how the mistake has been made.

... me specially
because Kuss is a Catholic.
It looks as if I had deliberately lied for the purpose of praising two Protestant missionaries instead of a Catholic. Can anything be done to put it right or shall I write to the papers correcting the mistake?

Yours sincerely
P. Macphail

to write an explanatory letter to the

The mistake probably arose in the
