"War Journal,"

Allahabad, 5th August, 1919

From,

W. S. Armour Esq., M.A.

Editor, U. P. "War Journal."

Allahabad.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government.

Madras Presidency.

Madras.

Dear Sir,

I beg to inform you that I have asked the Superintendent of the Government Press to supply you with copies of the U. P. "War Journal," which it is proposed to continue as a Popular Educator.

<sup>2</sup> The paper is intended to give news in simple form, to contain articles on Commerce, Industry, Co-operation, Agriculture, Engineering, Health and Sanitation, and the like. It tries to keep the Imperial idea steadily in view, whilst the story and picture elements are not neglected.

<sup>3</sup> In standard it tries to keep in view the master of the Primary School - the boy in the Middle School and in the upper classes of High Schools, whilst a considerable number of copies go to Army Units. In general it caters for those who do not as a rule read newspapers, whether in small towns or villages.

<sup>4</sup> I am hoping to send you a copy regularly, as efforts in other provinces may interest you, and already orders come to us from other Provinces - e. g. from Burma, the Central Provinces and Bihar.

Yours sincerely,

W. S. Armour. M.A. (Oxon)

Editor, U. P. "War Journal."

The photographic reproductions have been done on the cheap & are execrable.
And what on earth have the nesting-habits of hoopoes to do with the Imperial idea? However—
