D.S.

Rule 22. A. of the Rules for the Regulation of Interdepartmental References lays down that "all general orders in regard to the distribution of the Fort St. George Gazette issue from the Home (Misc) Dept. Orders as regards the supply of the Gazette to individual offices issue in the Secrtt. departments concerned." By "individual offices" it is evidently meant officers under the administrative control of the Dept. concerned. As the Director, Telegraph Engineering is not under the administrative control of the P.W.D, it is submitted that this dept. is not concerned with the supply of the Gazette to this office. Orders will have to issue in the Home (Misc) Dept to whom the requisition may be transferred U.O.

This dept. deals with questions relating to "Telegraphs & Telephones" which may fall to the Local Govt, such as the opening of Telegraph offices & putting up of Telephone installations, in other in other words, this Dept. is merely the mouthpiece of the local Govt. in matters relating to 'Telegraphs & Telephones'. As the Director is an officer of the Imperial Dept., presumably orders on the present communication should issue in the Dept. which issues general orders relating to the supply of the Fort St George Gazette.
