Sir,

In continuation of my letter No. 2187/19 dated 27th September 1919 forwarding an application for a passport from Mr. R. J. A. Moore I have the honour to report that Mr. Moore states that the only urgent necessity he could put forward for the journey to Australia is that his furlough has been long over-due on account of the war and that he is now in need of a change for the benefit of his health. He is also anxious to see his parents who are not in good health. The passport may be granted.
