Publicity Bureau,
Fort St. George, Madras,
19th September 1919.

Note for the Secretary, Home Department.

With reference to the Government Order sanctioning the pay of the establishment attached to the Publicity Officer, I beg to say that when I came to Madras on July the 5th I had no establishment excepting one stenographer on Rs.100/- Mr.Grubb. I had then in order to get the work started to obtain some clerks in anticipation of sanction. I had to take over from the Labour Bureau and reorganise the despatching machinery of the old Publicity Board. I had to get rewritten the despatch registers of the Old Publicity Board and to ascertain from enquiry the addresses of officers & private individuals who could be most useful as correspondents of the Board and recipients of the literature it had to issue. At the same time I had to have indents prepared for the paper and stationery which we require for the year, make estimates of the expenditure we should have to incur and make arrangements with the translators and the Superintendent; Government Press for the prompt translation, printing and issue of the Board's literature, i.e. some hundred thousand copies of leaflets on the Peace terms, Influenza etc. I found at once that it was quite impossible for Mr.Grubb to look after the outdoor and despatch work in addition to doing shorthand writing, and being responsible for the accuracy of the typing of the matter issued to the press. I had accordingly to engage a responsible clerk to take charge of the despatch section at once. I made enquiries from the Superintendent, Government Press, the Collector of Madras and the Officer in charge of the Labour and Employment Bureau & the Secretary, Board of Revenue. The only suitable man whose services could be spared was Mr.R.Naganatha Ayyar and Mr.Pate advised me that he ought to get

Rs.120 to make it worth his while to take up the appointment. I accordingly promised him this pay and entertained him and he has been working for me since July the 15th. The scale now sanctioned by Government does not provide any post which it is worth his while to accept and I am accordingly reverting him to the Board as soon as I can find a man competent to take over his work. I hope to do this before the end of the month, but I think it is fair that he should be paid at the rate promised i.e., Rs.120 for the period for which he has been working for the Bureau. I request therefore that sanction may be accorded to paying him at this rate from the date of his joining till the 1st of October or the date of his relief whichever is earlier. I shall not fill up before the 1st of October either of the two posts on Rs.80-4-100 sanctioned by Government so that the expenditure will be well within the scale sanctioned.
