PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

(a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.

(b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

(a) Natural-born British Subjects.

(b) Wives and widows of such persons.

(c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.

(d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad: such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, HOME (Miscellaneous) Department.

Sir,

With reference to Government Order No. 1393,
the 15th of October 1919, directing me to send additional copies of Mr. & Mrs. Bhore's photographs, I have to forward herewith a copy of letter dated 1919, received from Mr. Bhore in reply to my letter R.O.C.No.
17445-19-6, dated the 18th of October 1919, asking him to send the additional copies and to solicit the favour of instructions whether, under the circumstances stated by him,

DESPATCHED

fresh photos may be obtained and submitted.

2. Under rule 4 of the rules embodied in Government Order No. 1460 dated the 8th October 1915 only duplicate unmounted photographs are required. No orders modifying the above rule seem to have been received in my office. I, therefore, request that I may be favoured with a copy of the revised orders on the subject.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

To--the Collector of Chilakalapudi,
Dated--Bezwada, the 23rd October 1919.

I have the honour to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the passport sent with your letter R.O.C.No. 17445-19-6, dated the 18th October 1919. As I was under the impression that only the two copies sent would be required I took no trouble to keep more copies with me or retain the negatives which I regret cannot now be obtained. If Government requires two copies I can of course get fresh photos taken but these will not be replicas of those already sent. I should be much obliged if you would kindly ascertain and let me know if under these circumstances fresh photos should be sent.

It is desirable that some one of your clerks keep in office of the photographs of persons to whom passports have been issued. Mr. Shore says that he cannot lend replicas of <sup>the</sup> photos attached to the passport. Submitted that the Dr.

I do not think it is necessary to make a mistake of ourselves by further insisting on fresh photos especially as there will be duplicates. We may overlook the omission in the Bhor
