I do hereby certify that I have attended on Miss I.M.Redmond during August 1918. She is suffering from paralysis as a result of spinal injury since last two years or more. In my opinion it is quite essential that she should go to Europe for further treatment as soon as possible. It is also quite essential to have an attendant to look after her during the journey.

I examined Miss I.M.Redmond a month ago and found her to be suffering from a pithiatic paralysis of the legs of long standing. As this is a condition which can be cured by appropriate treatment which cannot be obtained in India, I urgently recommend her to go to England. I do not think she should travel without a companion.
