The Commissioner of Police,
M a d r a s .

Sir,

With reference to my application for a passport and your letter No. 730/PP of 23rd December, 1918 asking me to explain the object of my journey, I beg to state that I am anxious to proceed to England this year for the following reasons:

Business Affairs: In order to arrange for the transfer or efficient continuance of Company's London Agency and also to arrange for the manufacture, purchase and shipment of stocks (certain of which are greatly depleted) and orders on hand for the following season. It is essential that an experienced Director of the company should do this.

Family Affairs: My father is old (nearing 80) and has lately been subject to serious illness. My sister is alone and dependant to a great extent on him. It is necessary that arrangements be made to secure her welfare in the event of my father's decease.

I enclose herewith ^{original} copy of my military (I.D.F.) leave certificate No. 343 dated 17th January, 1919 which please return after perusal.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
