XI. Resolution

Endowment.

This Conference notes with regret that the activities of the Dharma Rakshana Sabha, have resulted in the transfer of the management of religious and charitable institutions from the representatives of individuals and communities that originally endowed them to the hands of the Brahmins and the diversion of funds for the purposes which benefits the Brahmins alone: and resolves that the properties of Non-Brahmin Mutts and other religious and charitable institutions such as Devasthanams be under no circumstances allowed to be passed into the hands of the Brahmin community and that the surplus proceeds thereof shall be utilised for the exclusive benefit of the Non-Brahmin communities. This Conference also recommends that special rules be framed by legislation if necessary for preventing and correcting such undesirable transfers and diversions as are referred to above.

Proposed by:- Mr. S.G. Renga Ramanuja Mudaliar, B.A., B.L.,
High Court Vakil, Madras.

Seconded by Mr. S. Somasundaram Pillai, B.A., B.L.,
High Court, Vakil, Madras.
