The Commissioner of Police,
M a d r a s.

Dear Sir,

I beg to enclose Application Form for Passport duly filled in. I have been a resident in India since 1887 and was last in England in 1914, since which date, owing to War restrictions, I have not been able to see my wife and daughter (at Brighton), nor was it possible for them to return to India.

What makes it more urgent that I should visit England as soon as a passage can be arranged is that my only son has recently been killed in action in France, and as he leaves a young widow, family affairs need my personal attention.

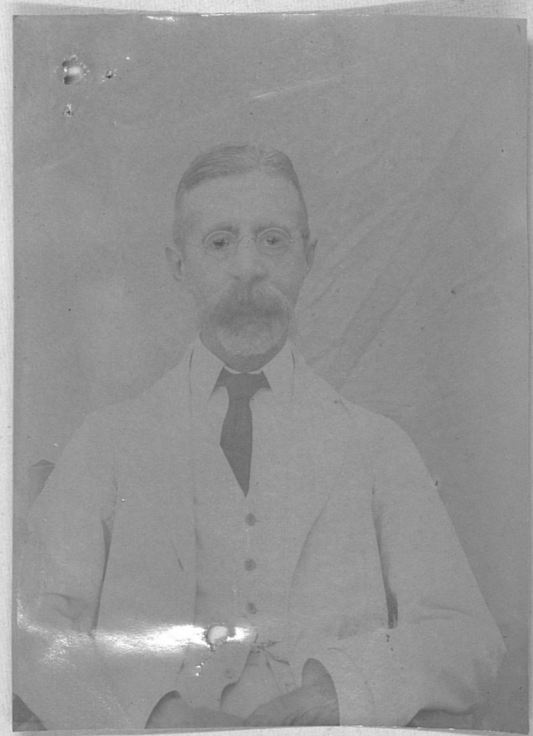

Encl:1.

Yours obediently,

Ernest Combridge

What makes it more strange that I should visit England as soon as I possibly can be extended is that my only son has recently been killed in action in France, and he leaves a young widow and three children in need of paternal care.

Yours sincerely,
W. H. D. Williams
