Dear Mr. Brown, Can you please enlighten me as to whether the enclosed passport is out of date for my missus who is going down to Sydney next month? It is made out in her maiden name & she has changed distinctly since - will it be quite sufficient if I get it endorsed or is it necessary for her to get a new passport?

Sorry to trouble you but Arling of Binnys couldn't tell me & advised me to write to you.

Yours sincerely,

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

(a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.

(b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to :—

(a) Natural-born British Subjects.

(b) Wives and widows of such persons.

(c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.

(d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant (in the case of a child under 15 requiring a separate Passport, by the child's parent or guardian) in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent, or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British Subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad : such persons should apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English, a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

DEPARTMENT OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS.

No 9062

PASSPORT.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. Applications for passports must be made in the authorized form, and enclosed in a cover addressed to "The Secretary, Department of External Affairs, Melbourne."

2. The charge for a passport is 10s., which sum must accompany the application. The office hours of the Passport Office at the Department of External Affairs are from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 to 4 p.m., except on Saturdays, when the hours are from 10 a.m. to noon. Passports cannot be issued on the same day as the application is lodged. Applications should reach the Department before 4 p.m.

3. Passports are granted—

- (1) To natural-born British subjects;
- (2) To the wives and widows of such persons;
- (3) To persons naturalized in the Commonwealth of Australia;
- (4) To persons naturalized in the United Kingdom; and
- (5) To persons naturalized in the British Dominions and Colonies, or in India, under an Act applying the provisions of The British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act 1914.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted—

- (1) In the case of adults, upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the authorized form, verified by a declaration made by a Judge, a member of Parliament, a bank manager, or by any mayor, magistrate, justice of the peace, minister of religion, barrister-at-law, physician, surgeon, or solicitor, residing in the Commonwealth. The applicant's certificate of birth and other evidence may also be required.
- (2) In the case of children under the age of sixteen years requiring a separate passport, upon production of a declaration made by the child's parent or guardian, in a Form to be obtained upon application to the Department of External Affairs.

I, the Governor General of the Commonwealth of Australia, request, in the name of His Britannic Majesty, all those whom it may concern, to allow to pass freely without let or hindrance, and to afford her every assistance and protection of which she may stand in need.

Given at Government House Melbourne in the State of Victoria in the Commonwealth of Australia, this 10th day of July, One thousand nine hundred and sixteen.

W. J. Hughes
Governor General.

By Command

B. Mahon
Minister of State for External Affairs.

This passport is valid for two years only from the date of its issue. It may be renewed for four further periods of two years each, after which a new passport will be required.

RENEWALS.

2.

4.

5. If the applicant for a passport be a naturalized British subject the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded to the Department of External Affairs with the declaration; it will subsequently be returned. Naturalized British subjects will be described as such in their passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications. Passports are not issued to naturalized British subjects within twelve months of their naturalization.

6. Passports are not valid after two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed for four further periods of two years each, after which fresh passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is 2s.

7. A passport cannot be issued by the Department of External Affairs on behalf of a person already abroad; such person should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate.

8. Passports will not be posted to applicants, but will be issued to the applicants on calling at the Department of External Affairs. Where it is shown that it would be impossible for the applicant to call at the Department of External Affairs, arrangements will be made for the passport to be obtained at a Government Department at the applicant's port of embarkation.

9. All applicants for passports must submit two unmounted photographs, one to be attached to the passport and the other to be retained in the Department of External Affairs. One photograph must be certified on the back as genuine by the person who signs the recommendation at the foot of the form of application. The photographs should be of head and shoulders only, taken without the hat and with plain background. They should be about 3 inches by 3½ inches in size.

10. The issue of a passport is a matter within the discretion of the Minister for External Affairs, who may require applicants to furnish evidence on any subject regarding which he deems it necessary to be informed, and may require such evidence to be furnished by Statutory Declaration or otherwise; and may authorize or withhold the issue of a passport without assigning any reason therefor.

NOTE.—Naturalized British subjects should bear in mind that their naturalization has no effect within the limits of the foreign State to which they originally belonged, unless they have ceased to be subjects of that State, in the manner prescribed by the laws thereof, or in pursuance of a treaty or convention to that effect.
