Please see para 4 of Bombay Govts' letter on page 2, and para 2(i) of Foreign Dept. Memo. on page 3 of G.O. 492 d 7-6-18. It will appear that in the case of officers proceeding on leave, the grant of passports to the ladies and children of their families continues to be governed by the rules in force applicable to women and children. Mr. Vibert wants passports for his wife and child, and for ~~the~~ a nurse. It does not appear that the fact that Mr. Vibert goes on leave "preparatory to retirement" makes any difference in the procedure. It is for orders whether he may be informed that exceptionally urgent reasons should be shown before passports could be issued to his wife and child and the nurse. I think the latter. I don't know why Mr. Vibert wants the bare passports unless he thinks it will be a long business getting them out – which, of course, is not the case. They are no use without the Endt. Still, there is no actual objection to letting him have what he wants; only it's irregular.
