Enclosure.

Copy of letter from Mrs. Maud Hunt, c/o. Postmaster, Bangalore to R. W. Davies, Esq., I.C.S., Sub Collector, Coonoor, dated 16th January 1919.

I am in receipt of your letter dated the 7th inst. I enclose the two photos for my passport.

You ask me to give more particulars as to my reason for wishing to go to England as soon as possible.

My principal reason is the smallness of my income since my husband's death, and the absolute necessity of making other and cheaper arrangements for my four sons education. I have no one in England who can do this for me, as my husband's sister who formerly had charge of them, had a paralytic stroke on hearing of his sudden death, and is now almost helpless, the only other relation I have to help me is my mother who is 75 years old.

My eldest son has been an invalid during the last 7 years from tubercular hip disease and I cannot now afford to keep him in a nursing home.
He needs me urgently, as he has reached a convalescent stage, and requires careful treatment, and some one to see that his surgical boots fit correctly etc.

There are old friends in England who can help me, if I could get there to talk over my financial affairs with them.

I think the above are sufficiently serious reasons for my wishing to go Home, without my stating others.

3
I hope you will be able to arrange it for me as soon as possible, as living out here is very expensive. It is quite time my youngest boy left the tropics also. I have had to take him from school in Ooty as I could not afford the fees; so his education is now at a standstill.
