Home (Mis) Dept.

The applicant in this case stated that he got the declaration in his application verified by the Deputy Tahsildar and Magistrate at Payyammur who directed him to the D.M. Calicut. Meanwhile he learnt that the next steamer to the Straits was leaving Madras tomorrow, and hastened to Madras to obtain his passport. Usually applications for passports are submitted to govt. through the district Magistrates or the Comr of Police. But there is a provision in the passport regulations to the effect that applications may be submitted direct. It orders whether a passport may be granted or whether the applicant may be asked to submit the application through the D.M. Malabar. The declaration has already been verified by a competent authority. It does not appear necessary to send him to the Comr of Police with reference to G.O. no. 599 Home (Mis) of 18.6.17.

2/ In view of the urgency represented by the applicant, a passport was prepared and as ~~he~~ he is waiting in the office
