 Dear Mr. J. J. Hunter,
 I am writing to ask if Col. W. be disposed to consider the question of allowing me a duty allowance for the time I act as Secretary to the Local Sanage Control Committee.
 I am doing this work in addition to the other duties in Home (which at the

Please see G.O. No. 325 Rev (S.M.) dated 7-2-1919 in which Mr. S. Wadsworth I.C.S. has been granted a duty allowance of Rs 200 p.m. during the period that he is in charge of the Labour & Employment Bureau in addition to his duties as Under Secy.

The case of Mr. C. H. Brown I.C.S. who similarly performs the duties of Secy to moment; are themselves very heavy) & I find it means very much more work than I had expected. The rules relating to duty allowances are set forth on pp 6 & 321 of the Madras Supplement to the C.S.R. under these such temporary allowances may be given on account of increased work & responsibility. The responsibility of the passage work is quite considerable as I have only a clerk to help me & have to check every thing he does. As to increased work I am quite safe to say that the passage work adds on the average

two to three hours a day: many days it
takes me six or seven.
A lot of the work is mechanical & a good deal of the time is taken up with interviews which I cannot properly refuse: still, there it is. I don't much care to appear in this mendicant capacity — & would not were the case not a strong one

— but think that y
Gov. knew the facts they might perhaps give my request favourable consideration.

Beyond suggesting that a reference might be made to Sir Wm. Aylmer, I'll leave it at that.

Yours sincerely
Herbert Hoover

in addition to his work as Under Secretary, Home Dept, seems; it is submitted to be another case where ^{the grant of} additional remuneration would appear to be justified. The additional duties are stated to take up 2 to 3 hours of his time every day. It is for orders whether Sir William Aylmer may be consulted as to whether it is so. If this reference is considered unnecessary, the case may perhaps be submitted for orders through Financial

Submitted that there is no objection to the grant a temporary duty allowance of Rs 200 per. to Mr C.A. Brown. It is within the Com-large number of particularly persistent applicants who dwell on these hills. If my opinion is desired I wd. suggest 6 months as the period - i.e. from 1.1.19 to 30.6.19.

As to St. Mr. Dul's second query, I think it is in the last degree unlikely that any of the members of the Committee will apply for allowances. Their work is confined (except in the case of Mr William Ayling who I hardly think is likely to want an allowance) to one weekly meeting so that even if Mr Tottenham or Theja Ingram were to apply the grant of an allowance in my case would be in no way a precedent.
