Rule 5 of the passport Regulations says "If the applicant for a passport be a naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Office empowered to grant the passport." ~~Cert~~ Certificates of naturalization are granted by the Government of the Country concerned & not by Justices of the Peace. The document on page 5 Ct. only says that Mr Neudoerffer is a naturalized Canadian citizen, but that document is not a naturalization certificate. He was born in South America where his parents removed from Germany. In the passport application form it is definitely stated that he is a "naturalised British subject. If so, he must have with him a naturalization certificate granted by the Govt of Canada. It is for orders whether it may not be sent for.
