The Deputy Commissioner of Police,

South Range, Madras.

Sir,

In reply to your enquiry regarding the object of my visit to England, I beg to inform you I intend going there for treatment. I should have gone there long ago; but the War conditions have prevented me from doing so. I also intend availing myself of this opportunity to make arrangements for my son-in-law who also goes to England a little later for prosecuting his studies.

Yours faithfully,

S. Ramasamy

Dear Sir, Please say whether you mean medical treatment by "treatment" & whether your ailment requires that treatment should be carried out in England. Yrs faithfully
