Dear Mr. Lockhart

The David of Talpuk has for a long time been anxious to buy Duts as he is a keen hunter & has offered me Rs 1500/- for my 3 Kpin hills Tents the current price for which is about Rs 2250 if new.
I received a letter today from the Kpin hills stating Rs 1400/- with 7 1/2% discount for cash for a new Swiss Camp Tent the same as mine which is nearly as good as new.
The other tents are a shooting Tent as good as new 10 x 10 for which they cost Rs 535/- with a small detachable kitchen which cost Rs 30/- which I have not got a small window so they tent will cost about Rs 450 + a 3 mile table tent for which they have not quoted but judging by the size & price will be Rs 500 if new. This is the order.

I consider the price a very reasonable one & I was actually sent Rs 1200 for the whole tent & Swiss cottage alone.
The Rajah who is ^{the uncle} brother of the Rajah of Delhi & the uncle of the Rajah of Benharajpur is I presume you know is just off to Madras with his staying at Narayan Rajah's house there the British residence. He is anxious to have the tent for his next shooting trip on his return.

He does not reside within the District but he has a house here in which he stays when passing through as Meerut is his nearest railway station.
He sometimes has his office here or at least a visit in which he is concerned is on his file.
Although I do not think the amount of furniture is required in case of a table for an Indian not kindred with one Ditch I am not prepared to accept his offer for my tent unless I am permitted by Parliament to do so.

I trust that such orders may be obtained as delivery of the tent is expected within 20 days.

Yours sincerely

Reverend Sir

Judge Thorne

NOTES.

Ed

Homeless, 1894

The Rajah of Jalpore though he may not reside within the jurisdiction of the D. Judge of Kurnool may yet be considered to carry on business in the district in that he has a house in the D. and litigation to which he is a party is filed in the courts of the district. Sanction of Govt under rule 9 of the Govt. Servants conduct Rules will therefore be necessary for the proposed transaction. In view of the full statement made sanction may be accorded.
