To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Public Department, MADRAS

Sir,

I have the honour to intimate under Rule 9 of the Government Servants' Conduct Rules, that I wish to sell my motor car to a native of India residing in Cocanada. I advertized the car in several Madras and Calcutta papers for Rs. 3,500, and have been in communication with several prospective buyers residing outside the district. The intending purchaser who wishes to close the transaction at once is a merchant of Cocanada, and I am selling the car to him for Rs. 3,400, the nett price (after paying rail fare to Madras) offered me by a Vakil of Coimbatore.

2. I am disposing of the car as I have applied for

3. I particularly wish to mention the fact that the intending purchaser is a merchant who, as the lowest --- "Tenderer", was selected by me for export of rice from--- this district to Madras and Vizagapatam for December--- 1918 and for a portion of January 1919.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Acting Collector.
