PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

(a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.

(b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

(a) Natural-born British Subjects.

(b) Wives and widows of such persons.

(c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.

(d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British Subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad: such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English, a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

With reference to his letter No 1365-3-1 of 27-1-19 forwarding an application from Mrs J. H. Brown for a passport to proceed to England accompanied by her two children, the attention of the Di. Magle, Malabar, is drawn to fo. No 119 date 27-1-19 in which a passport was granted to Miss E. M. Seager proceeding to England in charge of Mrs. Brown's children. The names of the children being already entered in Miss Seager's passport it would be irregular to enter them in Mrs Brown's also. The D. M. is requested to report ~~to~~ whether the children ^{are} travelling with Miss Seager or with their mother. Should it be the latter ~~and should it be decided that their names be entered in Mrs Brown's passport~~ it is requested that the passport of Miss Lea, may be forwarded to Govt.

for cancelling the names of the children, therein

Passport

From the D.M. Malabar No 1365-D-1 27-1-19

Mrs J. Brown of Cannanore applies for a passport to England in order to take her children home and also for the sake of her own health. The D.M. Magre recommended the grant of the passport. Attention is in this Connection, solicited to fo. 20.119 D/17.1.19 in which a passport was granted to Mrs F. M. Seager for the purpose of travelling to England in charge of Mrs. Brown's children. The names of the children were included in her passport - It would be irregular ~~to have~~ the names of the same ^{children} appearing in more than one passport. For orders whether the children's names should be included in Mrs Brown's passport.
