Copy of letter dated 4th March 1919 from Captain C.B. Bone, Wellington, to the District Magistrate.

Reference your W.C. 65M/19.

The object of the proposed journey is to England after more than 4 years in India; she, being my wife, came to India to join me, and is entitled to a passage for the return journey.

Should she be unable to accompany me in a troopship, she may have to proceed by private steamer, and as I understand in that event a Pass Port may be necessary. I made the application. Perhaps it will be clearer if I state, that, as I myself hope to return to England soon "the object of her proposed journey" is that she may return at or about the same time.
