G.O. No. 1002, Public, dated 6th November 1918.

Order—No. 522, Home (Miscellaneous), dated 11th March 1919.

G.O. No. 1002, Public, dated 6th November 1918, requires that non-Asiatic foreigners, other than Germans, Austro-Hungarians and subjects of the Ottoman Empire, desiring to leave by sea for Ceylon or Portuguese India or for any port in British India should obtain a permit from the Government of Madras authorizing them to do so. The Government now direct that non-Asiatic foreigners above described should, when making applications for such permits, be required to state whether they intend to proceed beyond Ceylon or other destination mentioned in their permit applications as the place to which they are immediately bound; and, if they are to proceed further, they should, when applying for the permits, also produce their passports for visa. Applications for permits as well as for visas should be made to Government through the Consuls representing the interests of the States of which the applicants are subjects.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked urgently, the Superintendent concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise action in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, in the file of correspondence headed in succession with the Roman numerals I, II, III, etc., the number being written in blue chalk above the item. Papers to be printed in the special press should be indicated by the Roman numerals I, II, etc., by which that item has been filed in the correspondence file. All marginal remarks or references, should be written in ink and matter not to be printed should be encircled. Signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special provision, the Press to keep matter standing for a period, ordinary papers of 8 pages will be kept standing for one week and papers for two weeks only. This applies to all confidential papers immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly filled in, should accompany every paper sent to the Press; it will be returned by the Press when a call is made for return of a corrected proof is sent. When finally returned by the Press, it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
