Station Cuddalore, Dated the 9th March 1919

From (Name) J. C. Stodart Esq., I.C.S.,
(Designation) Ag. Dt. Magistrate of South Arcot

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, HOME (Miscellaneous) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith duly verified an application for a passport to Kobe (Japan) on behalf of Subbaraya Nayanar, son of Annamalai Nayanar of Karamanikuppam village in the Cuddalore taluk and to report as follows.

2. The applicant is the brother of A. Sabapathi Nayanar, a wealthy merchant, carrying on indigo and skins trade in No.67, Govindappa Nayakan street, George Town, Madras, having dealings in Japan and some other places. The applicant wants to go to Kobe as the paid agent of his brother on a monthly salary of Rs.200/- in relief of the present agent of his brother there, a native of Calcutta, who wants to go back to Calcutta to see his family and intends to return to Japan three years hence.

Calcutta

3. The applicant is reported to be a man of good character and a loyal subject of the crown. A brief description of the person's career and political views was ascertained from the Tahsildar of Cuddalore, a copy of whose report is enclosed.

4. The photo of the applicant in duplicate with the records of enquiry and the treasury receipt for Re.One, accompany.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

DESPATCHED.
10 MAR 1919

Copy of a communication from M.R.Ry. T.K.Subrahmanyam Nayudu B.A., Taluk Magistrate, Cuddalore, to the District Magistrate of South Arcot, No. Confdl. 4 of 1919, dated the 2nd March 1919.

Adverting to your confidential memo R.O.C.No.391, dated the 21st February 1919, I respectfully beg to state as follows.

2. Subbaraya Nayanar of Karamanikuppam is the uterine brother of Mr. Sabahpati Nayanar, a wealthy merchant, carrying on indigo and skins trade in No.67, Govindappa Nayakan Street, George Town, Madras. The man has studied up to the 3rd Form in the Town High School, Cuddalore and was living with Mr. Sabahpati Nayanar at Karamanikuppam, Cuddalore taluk. After some years the brothers divided their ancestral property. Subbaraya Nayanar carried on his trade independently here and soon found himself in deep waters To discharge his debt consequent on his loss in trade, he sold away all his property to his brother Sabahpati Nayanar and is now a dependant on him. Subbaraya Nayanar does not own either lands or houses and is now living with his brother at Madras. He comes to Karamanikuppam now and then to look after the lands &c., of his brother.

3. Mr. Sabahpati Nayanar has got a Calcutta gentleman as his agent in Kobe, Japan. This agent has been staying in this foreign country for some years and has now wished to go back to Calcutta to see his family there. To replace him, an agent is wanted. Hence Subbaraya Nayanar, aged now 48, is to be sent to Japan as the agent of Mr. Sabahpati Nayanar on a salary of Rs.200/- per mensem. He is likely to stay there for about three years till the Calcutta gentleman comes back and assumes charge of his office. The broken English of Subbaraya Nayanar will be of no avail to him and so he is taking with him an interpreter from Madras who seems to know fairly good English.

4. Subbaraya Nayanar knows Tamil well and seems to read Tamil newspapers occasionally only to find out when certain steamers are leaving

leaving certain ports. I had a casual talk with him in his village on general matters. He does not seem to know what the present political situation in India is. All that I was able to gather was that he is a loyal subject of the British crown. His conversation led me to the irresistible conclusion that he is a keen follower of the familiar adage "Avoid British rule court misrule". Knowing no politics, his political view is absolutely nil. I have made confidential enquiries of this man and stated above the gist of what I was able to gather. I respectfully submit the above for the kind consideration of the District Magistrate.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

   (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.

   (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

   (a) Natural-born British Subjects.

   (b) Wives and widows of such persons.

   (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad: such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.
