Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 562, dated 5th March 1920, ordering books for the officer in charge of the Publicity Bureau, Egmore, we have the honour to inform you that "Encyclopaedia Britannica, Indian paper edition" is unprocurable at the present time as the publication of this work has been suspended.

However, we are in the position to offer you, through a Second hand Bookseller:- "Encyclopaedia Britannica" 35 volumes with Index of the 9th and 10th edition, bound in half Morocco and in very good condition, for the sum of £15-0-0d, plus our usual commission.

We shall be glad if you will inform us by return if we shall procure this work and despatch with this order as we are afraid we shall not be able to supply it in any other way. We may point out that this edition is
