PUBLICITY BUREAU,
VICTORIA BUILDINGS, EGMORE,
Madras, dated 18th May 1920.

From

J. T. GWYNN, Esq., I.C.S.,
PUBLICITY OFFICER,

The Secretary to Government,
Home (Department).

SIR,

I have the honor to state that in G.O. No. 564, Home (Miscellaneous) dated the 5th March 1920, the Superintendent of Stationery has been directed to arrange the supply to this Bureau, among other periodicals of a copy of the "London Times", weekly edition. I request you will be pleased to have the daily edition of the London Times substituted for the weekly edition and to issue instructions for the supply of the former instead of the latter.

I further request that the Superintendent of Stationery may be directed to arrange the supply to this Bureau of a copy of the ^{foreign} periodicals mentioned in the attached list.

I find that in practice ^{such} these periodicals are often of use to me. At present I have to see them where I can and to take extracts.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. T. Gwynn
