J. G. Beazley, Esquire, I. C. S.,
Secretary, Air Board,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Miscellaneous) Department.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 617, dated the 12th March 1920, regarding the provision of a customs aerodrome for the air traffic between Ceylon and India, and to say that, on reconsideration, the Air Board is of opinion that it would be premature at present to establish a customs aerodrome at Dhanushkodi unless the Government of Madras see reason to believe that flying is likely to develop between Ceylon and India in the near future.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. G. Beazley
Secretary, Air Board.
