on the subject of the supply of Government publications to the Editor of the "Raiyat" newspaper.

2. The "Raiyat" was very recently started under the Editorship of one S. Hasan Nizami who, however, very soon terminated his connection with the paper. The paper is mildly extremist in character and its literary and general merits are low though superior to the general standard in Delhi. The actual circulation is not known as the paper is a new one but it is in all probability under 2000. The paper is not supplied with the official publications of this Province and is not under security.

3. In the above circumstances, I agree with the District Magistrate, Delhi, who is of opinion that
