[C.No. 3657] From the U.S. to the Govt. of Bombay
 Rev. Dept. No. A. misc 1982 of 22nd July 1920.
U.S.

While this Govt addressed the Govt of Bombay only about the Kanarese leaflets that Govt. have asked not only for a large number of copies of the Kanarese leaflets but also for copies of certain English leaflets. But the Bombay Govt have confined their request to the sample copies sent and do not say anything about the future publications of the Publiatg Bureau. Looking to the large order they have placed with us it is subd the Publiatg officer may be asked to correspond direct with the Director of Information, Bombay in regard to the supply to that Govt of future leaflets ^{which may be useful in Bombay}. This is included in the draft.

2 The Govt. of Bombay have not answered the query of this Govt as to whether they are prepared to pay the actual cost of the leaflets. In regard to the supply of Oriya leaflets to the Govt. of Bihar & Orissa, the Acct Genl enquired recently with a view to his obtaining the sanction of the

(H) Comptroller-General for interprovincial adjustment, whether the Govt of Bihar & Orissa had agreed to pay the cost. - vide G.O. No. 1202 Home (mis) of 15th July 1920.

3 It is subd the Govt. of Bombay may now be informed that the Publicity Officer has been asked to correspond direct with the Director of Information, Bombay in regard to the supply to the Bombay Government of the future publications of the Publicity Bureau. They may also again be asked as to their acceptance to pay the actual cost of the leaflets.
