Home (Miscellaneous) Dept.

Extract from notes connected with G.O. No. 1010, Home (Mis), dated 21st May 1920.

Afterwards, take up the question whether the Publicity Officer himself cannot be authorised subject to budget sanction, to incur expenditure on publications or purchase of tracts subject also to a certain limit for a particular item.

submitted that I may be allowed to purchase books & periodicals subject to budget provision up to a maximum of Rs. 1,500 per annum with a limit of Rs. 30 for any single book or periodical.

The lines on which our reading room & library are to be run are fully explained to Govt and I understand approved by Govt. If the general principle is approved the particular application may be left as a rule to the Publicity Officer's Board.

bottom of p. 1 supra

Please see para 4(a) of Gro. 1306 Home (mis) of 12.9.1919. The Publicity Officer has already been empowered, subject to Budget provision, to purchase books required for reference, books ordered from England being obtained through Messrs Baker and Co. There is, therefore, no objection to the Publicity Officer's present proposal, to purchase books, being accepted. It is presumed he will obtain books published out of India without Messrs Baker & Co's intervention.

2. As regards the purchase of periodicals please see para 5(b) of notes to Gro. No. 1306 Home (mis) of 12-9-1919 + para 4(b) of order ibid. Mr. Guymon can now subscribe for such periodicals published in this Presidency.

as he may Consider necessary. For periodicals published outside this Presidency and outside India he will have to obtain Govt. sanction and obtain them through The Supt. of Stationery - vide para 3 of Gov. no. 771 Dtl of 27-10-1919. For orders whether Mr. Gwynn may be empowered as at A on p. 1 Supra this case is an exceptional one

Submitted that if the maximum of 1500/- is accepted, we may leave it to Mr. Gwynn to buy books periodicals as he likes. He will not want single copies so the agency of Baker & Co. need not be insisted on.
