Mr. R. N. Chandrasekhar

I should like if there is no objection to take a fortnight's leave as early as it can conveniently be granted. I suggest that if the leave is granted Mr. Slater might be asked to take charge of my duties in the Bureau. He tells me that he is willing to do so in addition to his other duties but suggests that the propriety of granting him a charge allowance may be considered.

If you and the Chief Secretary have no objection to the grant of the leave may I hope a wire so that I may submit my
