Sir,

Madras Land Lords Association-Status of.
Government Memorandum No. 2875-1 dated 11th June 1920.

The Madras Land Lords Association was --- started about a year ago. There are about 200 members on the rolls and the membership is restricted to persons who own house or landed property in Madras. The President of the Association is M.R.Ry., Lodd Govindoss Garu and M.R.Ry., E. Chitti Babu Nayudu, Mowbray's Road is the Vice President. There are three Secretaries one of whom M.R.Ry., P.Ramanathan, Solicitor is the working Secretary. I have not been able to get a copy of

Sir,

Madras Landlords Association - Library - Government
Memorandum No. 3478-1 dated 21-7-1920.

The Madras Land Lords Association, which was started only recently, has no building of its own. It is, at present, located in a large room of Mr. Lodd Govindoss' bungalow in General Patters Road, Royapettah. It has not a good library of serious books ~~of serious books~~ on economic and social questions: but it has a small collection of books containing information on statistics and economics. The Secretary hopes to have a good library by the end of this year.

28 JUL 1920

2. The Association has no regular reading room. The room in which the office and library are is also used as a reading room. The Madras Mail, the Madras Times, the Hindu and the New India are subscribed for and are kept on the table.

I have the honour to be,

NOTES.

Home (Miscellaneous) Department

[The Madras Landlords' Association - E.T. privileges]

From the President, Madras Landlords' Association, dated the 20th May 1920.

[Letter to the President, Madras Landlords' Association, No. 2646 B-1, Financial, dated the 26th May 1920.]

[Endorsement to the Collector of Madras, No. 2875-1 dated 11th June 1920.]

From the Collector of Madras, No. A.-1-990-20, dated 7th July 1920.

For the Under Secretary

A list of institutions in this Presidency who have been granted full or part E.T. privileges is given on pages 3, & 4 - 5, of G.O. No. 1208 Home (Mis) dated 14-8-1919. The following associations in Madras enjoy full E.T. privileges.-

The South Indian Association.

The Madras Landholders' Association.

The Madras Ryotwari landholders' Association.

The Madras Zamindars and Landholders' Association.

The Madras Landlords' Association is reported to have ^{about} 200 members on the rolls- a sufficient number to qualify 'the membership test' now taken into account in the case of District Associations. ~~It is not however known whether the Association maintains any good library. The Collector may be requested to ascertain and report on the point. A draft memorandum is submitted for approval.~~

2. The Association is but a year old and it is therefore too early to judge of its activities. ~~It is not admitted that the Association is not for the purpose of the Presidency but for the purpose of the District.~~ Moreover there is no standing list of

2. Of the three conditions which must to the Association are expected to satisfy before E.T. privileges may be granted to them, the Association in question seems to satisfy only two viz-
 (i) It has a membership of 200 - the minimum prescribed.
 (ii) Membership is restricted to persons owning house or land property in Madras.

5. It seems too early to extend E.T.
privileges to this Association. In any case
I do not think it needs to get all papers.

The Association has no library;
yet with regret. I shall however circulate the Draft in case HM has any independent knowledge of the Association
