This will mean reversions? Can there be waivers?

With reference to U.S.'s note on page 1 ante attention is solicited to article 279 A(1) of the Civil Account Code, Vol.I from which it will be seen that in the case of disallowances by Audit officers of payments made within 6 months from the date of payment, the Provincial Government have power to sanction remission provided that the amount challenged was drawn by the officer under reasonable belief on his part that he was entitled to it. This condition is of course satisfied in the present case and there seems therefore no objection to the Government, if they consider it necessary, permitting the payments already made, which are as follows in the case of the clerks concerned:-

B.Thuljaram Rao. ----- Rs 9-10-10.

F.Pinheiro. ----- 16--0--0

R.D.Michael. ----- 16--0--0

G.Matesa Ayyar. ----- 20--0--0
